

Booking form – New International Perspectives: Supporting the UK school and college adviser

29 November 2010 9:30 to 15:30

A brand new workshop especially designed for UK-based school and college advisers who work with international applicants or those from an international background.

This day-long workshop will give UK school and college advisers the opportunity to find out more about how to successfully advise applicants from an international background and where to find up-to-date resources that can help answer the many questions they may have. Participants in this workshop should have some familiarity with dealing with UCAS applications. Please contact us if you would like to discuss your options.
